Union of the Maritime Provinces.

Allusion was made in these columns a short time ago to certain resolutions introduced into the Legislature of New Branswick having in view a Legislative Union with Newfoundland, Nova Scotia and Prince Edward Island. The resolutions were defeated by a large majority. Reflecting minds will have no difficulty in discovering grave, perhaps insuperable, obstacles in the way of such a union. A union between New Brunswick and Nova Scotia would be quite natura! and is perhaps not altogether improbable. But in their case no physical obstructions are presented. Territorially united, and bound together by railways traversing them in every direction, as will soon be the case; by no means dissimiliar in the number and character of their population; both already Provinces of the Dominion, and with interests in many respects identical, a legislative union between New Brunswick and Nova Scotia would not appear to be an unreasonable one. The expense of governing these Provinces might be somewhat reduced by such a union, and with one strong Legislature it is highly probable that the interests of the whole might be better promoted. But in the case of Newfoundland and Prince Edward Island the case is essentially different. In the first place, it is rather 100 much to expect that these colonies would, while yet remaining out of the Dominion, give themselves up body and soul to two Provinces of the Dominion. What earthly advantage could they hope to derive from such a union? What benefit would such a union confer upon Nova Scotia and New Brunswick? It is not to be believat most highly problematical these two outlying colonies would consent that all their laws should be made and all their affairs managed at some capitial on the mainland where any representation they might hope to send would be completely awamped by count of noses, As Provinces of the Dominion they would both have much to gain. For while retaining complete control of their local affairs and masters of their own wealth they would share the national prestige and general prosperity of the young Empire. But in the other case they would become helpless appendages of the larger neighbor-

Canadian Opinion Snubbed. At the moment Canada was bracing herself up to the work of rejecting the the Americans for a very equivocal conproposition to sell her fishery rights to sideration, the announcement is made that her leave will not be asked, that her consent will be dispensed with. It is stated in our Exclusive Dispatches that the Governor General will exercise the same prerogative as his royal mistress in ratifying the Treaty of Wash. ington, without asking the c asent of Parliament, at least in so far as the fisheries are concerned; but legislation, it is added, may be required for opening the canals. Assuming the correc ness of statements we would prefer to doubt, it is more than probable that Canada will resent this enuband assert her right to be consulted on matters that so nearly concern herself, by refusing to open her canals. In this way she could either annul the treaty as a whole or render it unacceptable to the Americans. We should regret to see Canada driven to taking such a hostile attitude; but we would far more regret to see her tamely submit to such humiliating treatment. It may be said that there is really nothing more humiliating to Canada in the Governor General ratifying the Treaty without the consent of Parliament than there is to England in the Queen doing so. But it must be remembered that the cases are entirely different. The Queen, as the head of the nation, ratifies the Treaty on the advice of her con stitutional advisers, who are in stead of the people; but the Governor General of Canada will, it is to be presumed, ratify the treaty at the bidding of th Queen, whose representative he is; and thus the nominal consent of Canada would be an empty pretense.

GILMORE, MERCHANT TALLOR, and General Outfitter, has removed his place of business to the store adjoiting the Colonial Hote and opposite the Coloniat Office, on Government street, tourth door from Yates, where he proposes to give his old friends and new customers a chance on the principle of quick ales and small prefits.

The Diamond Diggings.

The planton planton planton mail continues to be most encouraging. A new field of extraordinary richness has been discovered on the banks of the Yaal, in the district of Boshof. In three days there were found diamonds of 23%, 271, 132, 12, 371, and 1071 carats. The last is the largest gem yet discovered in South Africa and has been named the 'Star of Diamonds'. Its value has been estimated at £25,000. The Graaff-Reinet Herald publishes an extract from a private letter written at Hope 'Town on the 9th, stating that two diamonds one of 52 and the other of 115 carats had been picked up in that district. a that district.

To avert evil is one of the greatest triumphs of human skill. This triumph is achieved by Dr Walker's Vinegar Bitters. They build up, fortify and renovate the whole system, thus enabling it to defy the elemental causes of disease. Hence their efficacy as a protective medicine in district where the air and water are impure. The weakest and most susceptible organization is rendered proof against all malarious disorders by taking one or two doses daily as a preventive. 8

At a regular meeting of Victoria I odge, No 1. Independent Order of Good Templars, held on Monday the 29th inst, it was resolved that the following communication and reply be published:

NAME OF THE AUTHOR.

FRITOR, "Scin," No. 1, B. C., May 17, 1871.

Entror, "Scin," "Skx:—In your issue of the 27th uit there appears a c minuiciation headed "Victoria Correspondence" and spined B.C., which, if allowed to pass unnot ced, will appear to have the sarction of this role of, at all events, to have emanated from a member of the same.

or, at all events, to have emanated from a member of the same.

The communication having been brought before the actice of the Looge a very strong feeding of indignation was manifested by the members, and n committee constiting of the undersigned was appointed to request from you the name of the author, who, whether a n ember of this Lodge or not, must bear the consequences. We therefore, in the name o Victoria Lodge No 1, 8.2., request from you the name of the author of the before mentioned communication, and at the same time of the most emph ticklight that this Lodge compactly disaw, we all connection with such a vice pec of blookguardism. We will also state for your own private ear that there was a very strong feeling expressed in the Lodge that if a paper professing to uphold temperates principles will publish such a communication and not furnish the name of the author it will no longer by considered worthy of tions who have read the communication before referred to that it has emanated from the pen of a certain party in this city and should the name of the author be with-held, it is our opinion that such stigms will still continue to rest on him, which would be a great injustice to him apposing him to be innocent.

REPLY OF THE " ECHO" EDITOR. Office of the Echo, Olympia, May 24, 1871.

GEO. NORRIS, Chairman Investigating Committee, Siri-I have just received your communication of the 17th inst in relevence to the 'B. C. Victoria Correspondence,' asking for the name of its author.

Itch last to reference to the "B. O. Vouchastion of correspondence," asking for the name of its author.

I shall be very happy to grant your request if the writer of it signifies his willtraces for me to do so. I believe that the writer is an able, accomplished and responsible person, and one that is pretty positive of what he writes. I further judge from the general tone of the Victoria daily press, which we have on five here, especially from the polece reports, that the writer is not far from the truth in some of his statements, and truth ought to bear its own weight everywhere, besides be sustained by its friends everywhere. In your communication, and also another that I have received on the same subject, no denial is made of the charg's contained in B. C. Correspondence, I to wond have pleased mery much to have been intormed that your Logic had appointed a committee ! I investigation to ascertain if such things do exwift your midsl, and if so to take means and the second of the commission of that correspondence, or for any person to answer it that feels agrieved or burt: An answer to it in a plain, lart, gentermanly style might pessibly bring out the writer again Though the correspondent does not claim to belong to the Correspondence and Humanny.

Trusting that this will be satisfactory.

I remain Yours,

Martini-Henry breech-loading

Presented to both Houses of Parliament by Command of Her Majesty. [C. 299, page 4.]

GUNPOWDER,
"The powder first tried by the Committee in the PoxerHenry cartridge, and of which they entirely approve, is know as 'Curtis and Harrey, No 6.' Several order descriptions manufactured at the Government Factory,

Waitham Abbey, have also been tried, but have not afforded the same uniform accuracy of shooting. There appear to be difficulties, confined, it is believed, to the question of expense, in producing a powder at Waltham Abbey in all respects equal to ' Curtis and Harvey, No 6,' but the Committee, keeping in view the im tauce of maintaining the great accuracy of shooting of the Martini-Henry rife, recommend that no powder should be used for its ammunition that does not give remains at least equal to those obtained in the Com-mittee's experiments, whether such powder be obtained from the Government Factory or from the trade.".

by Mr. Henry during the competition for accuracy of shooting and the results then attained were satisfactory the Committee have, without make up trid of the powde of other manufacturers, continued its use as a standard

At the Police Court yesterday morning appeared Mr Wm Lush of the Park Hotel, and Mr Bishop, his attorney. Mr Bishop asked the Magistrate to place Mr Macdonald in ed the Magiatrate to place Mr Macdonaid to the stand that he might undergo crossexamination. Mr Pemberton declined to accede to the request, saying that Mr Bishop,

I thank you most heartily, Mr Chairman and gentlemen, for the great honor you have to-night conferred on British Columbia through her representative, and my personal acknowledgents are esspecially due to you Sir, for the flattering terms in which you have spoken of me. I am well aware that I am all undeserving of the high encommunwhich your politeness has led you to bestow on me. As an Englisman—a loval British subject—and as a true friend of British Col-umbia, the home of my adoption for the past 12 years, my heart has been thoroughly in the work of extending the Dominion of Danada to the Paorito. But I can assume no ether merit than this—if indeed there can be any merit in the performance of a simple and expressing the sentiments of joyful gratitude which posses the entire British population of and forming one of its main attractions, thanks to those gentlemen whose voies have notified out to you sufficient mater thanks to those gentlemen whose voies have notified out to you sufficient mater thanks to those gentlemen whose voies have notified out to you sufficient mater thanks to those gentlements of the country and forming one of its main attractions, have notified out to you sufficient mater thanks to those gentlement of the country and forming one of its main attractions, have notified out to you sufficient mater thanks to those gentlement of the country and forming one of its main attractions, have notified out to you sufficient mater thanks to those gentlement of the country and forming one of its main attractions, have notified out to you sufficient mater thanks to those gentlement of the country and forming one of its main attractions. and aspirations; and I congraturate you Mr view to removing misappreheusion. And in the first place I desire to easy that in British Columbia we have been led to understaud most distinctly from the utterances of public men and from the opinious enunciated in leading journals in Ontario that from that quarter at least we should have no opposition We were aware that there were in this courtry some who, having opposed Consequention from its inception, were still hostile to that great and good measure, or at best doubtful friends to its secomplishment—consequently their wil but of the same vinced against their wil out of the same opinion still—and from those gentlemen we inticipated antagonism to our union with the Dominion. But the people of Ortario we have regarded as our natural allies in this connection and we supposed that the leaders of political parties in that Province would noite in extending Confederation westward on any reasonable terms that might be said before them. During this debate I have heard many statements made and opinions expressed depreciatory and as it appeared to me extravagantly depreciatory of our country and our people. (H:ar. hear.) I believe that those statements were made housestly though upon false informa-tion. But not the less do I regret that those statements are about to i flict much mortifi estion and bitterness of heart upon the people of our country. They cannot know the enounstances under which these statements were uttered and will not therefore make allowances for those who uttered them as I do. I have never believed that if was a part of my mission here to vaunt the material wealth of our country, to extol its excellence or in any way to press British Columbia upon Uanada. But I think it is necessary after what has been said to give you gentiemen here present some just idea of the wealth and wor's of our country. This is no occasion for attempting any detailed d scription or statistical essay on British Columbia, but I will endeavor to sketch with as few touchos as no sible. as possible THE LEADING FRATURES OF THE COUNTRY.

The position of British Columbia you are all well acquainted with. It commands not only the trade of the western continent of America and the islands of the Pacific, but also that of the trans-Pacific countries. It has a seacoast extending five handred miles in a straight line, with a labyrinth of is and along its whole length, forming innumerable barbors, inlets and causls, which together with the rivers that cupty into them are teening with fish-sulmon, sturgeon, mack-erel, cod, herring, hallbut, colachans, nod last but not least, with whales. These fish-eries are a source of wealth at present to-tally und-veloped with us. We know only of its boundless richness, but except a small beginning in whale fishing nothing has as you leen done to render merchantable these mmense resources. Then our forests extendin minerse resources. Then our forcess extend-ing all along the const and fiver courses, of vast extents of timber, excellent in quality and from their proximity to water carriage most valuable for shipbuilding and lumbers-ing purposes. This industry in Battish Co-lumbia has latterly effected a good start, as appears from the official returns for 1869, that in that year lumber amounting in value of $250 for many expected. Our conflicted to $250,000 was exported. Our coal field-are also of vast exsunt—of bituminous coal in Vancouver Island, along the coast of the mainland 200 miles in the interior of the country. These have been worked to some sountry. Those have been worked to some exiet to resevral gene past, andm the year 1869 $125 000 worth of coal was exported to San Francisco. We have also that whice some think more valuable then bituminous coal. In Queen Charlotte I-land large decoil. In Queen Charlotte Irland large de-posits of arthracite coal have been discov-ored, and of this a sample was introduced this year into San Francisco and is now selling at $17.00 a ten, as I learn from San Francisco papers. California has very little coal within her own limits, and what is to be found there is of the poorest qual-She is therefore almost altogether supplied by British Columbia, and strange to any to some extent from Australia. Then it 1869 our exports of the sind hides amounted 1809 our agone 8 of the and include amount of almost every description. In fact I hardly know of any that have not been found in our country. The gold exported in 1867 amounted to a million and a half of dolurs—and we have besides, silver, iron, c ppor, le.d. and many other minerals of less importance. Building materials also abound, such as lime, marble, treestone, white, commit. &c. And now with regard to lands, I would like to -pesk very excelling, as there appears such conflict of opinion here on this point. It is rue, as has been stated, that the country is much broken up by intersecting mountaile ranges. But it must be remembe ed that all is not mountaines. We have a very large quantity of valuable land available for agricultural and postoral purposes in British Co'umbia on the high plateaus and interspersed amongst the valleys, capable of supporting a larger population; and though not and most pleasurable duty—that I have laboured earnestly under the direction of our most excellent and able Givernor. Mr Musquare, to promote that great object now so happily attained. But it is not the less gratifying to me, sir, to be the recipient of the country, a good portion of which gratifying to me, sir, to be the recipient of the country declared to Brish Columbia in the person of her respectative on her entrance into this Constant of the country on her entrance into this Constant of the country and her entrance into this Constant of the country and her entrance into this Constant of the country and her entrance into this Constant of the country and her entrance into this Constant of the country and her entrance into this Constant of the country and her entrance into this Constant of the country and her entrance into this Constant of the country and her entrance into this Constant of the country and her entrance into the country and her entrance into the country and her entrance in the country and the country and the country and her entrance in the country and the country and the country are constant of the country and the country and the country are country. to Brish Columbia in the person of her representative on her entrance into this Conlederation of British North America; a welome which, I can assure you, will be most

THE UNION QUESTION IN THE COLONY

Persait ime now to trace the history of Confederation in British Columbia and to review the position of the question there at the present time. In March 1867, while your delegates were in London completing the regulations which resulted in the present British North American Act, our Legisla ive Council, then composed of fourteen official and nine selected members, but all appointed by the Governor being in assion, pass da an unanimous resolution praying that they might be allowed the opportunity of entering the Contederation at some future day on terms fair and equitable. And that sentiment exists to day and to an increased degree. (Hear, hear and cheers) This resolution was integrated by our this resolution was instrumental in causing the 146th section to be inserted in the strictly North America Act, but shortly after ur message was sent a reply was received informing us that provision had been made for our admittance into the Confederation with Canada, but in view of the fact that the great Northwest was still unconnected with the Dominion, this movement was voted premature and impracticable.
